Pernix Group, Inc. Announces New Contract Award in Sierra Leone

LOMBARD, ILLINOIS – October 18, 2013 – Pernix Group, Inc. (OTCBB:PRXG) announced today that the Company’s joint venture, Pernix Serka Joint Venture (PS JV), has been awarded a $10.8 million contract by the U.S. Department of State Bureau of Overseas Buildings Operations (OBO) for the Rainwater Capture and Storage System at the U.S. Embassy in Freetown, Sierra Leone. The project includes site improvements, rainwater capture and storage systems, conveyance infrastructure, and water treatment for this embassy compound in West Africa.

Nidal Z. Zayed, CEO of Pernix Group, stated that, “We are extremely pleased to continue our work with the Department of State in its global embassy upgrade program. We appreciate the confidence that the U.S. Government has placed in us, and we will approach this new assignment with our traditional focus on quality, safety and timely delivery that has characterized our success with OBO in recent years. Pernix remains fully committed to the success of the State Department and its diplomatic missions abroad, and we look forward to our continued partnership with OBO.”
