

Pernix Welcomes Ed Strickland to the Power Team

LOMBARD, IL — October 30, 2015 — Pernix Group, Inc. (OTCQB: PRXG) proudly announces Ed Strickland as the Director of Power Asset Management. Mr. Strickland is responsible for asset management leadership to Pernix's operating power projects in the Pacific Rim and supports the development of our Power O&M services business.

Mr. Nidal Zayed, President and CEO stated, "Ed's experience and drive is a tremendous benefit to the Pernix Team and I'm looking forward to seeing his work strengthen our business in the Pacific Rim".

Mr. Strickland has held a variety of positions in, or related to, the power generation and electric utility industries. Early in his career, he held roles at Caterpillar, Inc. where he held progressive assignments within groups providing power generation services in the U.S., Latin America and Asia. Additionally, he held roles at independent power producers and at a regulated utility in the developed power markets PJM and Alberta, Canada. Mr. Strickland received an M.B.A. in Finance from the University of Chicago, Booth School of Business in 2005, and since that time, he has acquired substantial experience in the valuation and negotiation of power asset acquisitions. In his most recent role, Director of Commercial Management at Capital Power Corporation, he acted as commercial lead for the company's Ontario wind plants and for biomass cogeneration facilities in North Carolina.

Mr. Strickland also holds a B.S. in Marine Engineering Systems from the United States Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, NY.
